Liability Agreement

Fairground Shows NY may be referred to as FSNY throughout this agreement;

FSNY, the promoters, representatives, agents, employees, any members or guests of FSNY, and/or the facility on which the activities are conducted are to be saved and held harmless from; any liability for injury, loss, sickness or damage that may be suffered by any exhibitor, vendor, their employees, agents, or property. Exhibitors and vendors are required to provide their own personal and business liability insurance and loss insurance coverage.

The undersigned further agrees to save and hold FSNY as individuals, or their employees harmless from any claim or demand because of bodily injury or damage to property or sickness caused by or resulting from a negligent or willful act of the undersigned exhibitor, their representatives, agents, or employees related to the operation of the undersigned's business, display, or exhibit.

No responsibility shall be assumed by FSNY, their agents or associates, for goods situated within the fairground during advertised hours of the event, or for goods left upon the premises at any time the event is closed to the public. It shall be the sole responsibility of the undersigned exhibitor to protect his or her own exhibit including personal materials.

FSNY reserves the right to: revoke contracts, move or require removal of certain merchandise, reassign spaces, or even cancel an event, when in the opinion of FSNY management representatives such action would be in the best interest of the event's presentation. An exhibitor shall be entitled to a future show credit not to exceed the amount of a currently credited deposit as restitution for such revocation, removal, reassignment or cancellation action.

I understand that sub-leasing or sharing of exhibitor space with another seller is prohibited. I agree to keep my assigned exhibit space open during advertised public hours until posted closing times. I have carefully read, and agree to the rules and conditions in this and other materials regarding Fairground Shows.
